

JUNETEENTH

Bingo

Henry Frye is the first person of color to be the N.C. Supreme Court Chief Justice	Copy of the Emancipation Proclamation Visits Greensboro 2014!	February 1st, 1960 The Greensboro Four take a seat at the Woolworth Counter	John Coltrane and his saxophone in High Point	James Dudley becomes the second President of UNC A&T
Bennett College Belles boycott the Carolina Theater in 1938	Ned Griffin fights in the Revolutionary War, eventually gaining his freedom.	Thomas Day is at the top of the cabinetry discipline	Warnersville a community of freed men and women	Immanuel Lutheran College and Seminary opens in 1905.
Bennett College started in 1873.	North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University founded in 1891.	Free Space!		Ronald McNair NASA Astronaut and graduate from A&T
Mayor Yvonne Johnson graduate of Bennett College	George Simkins Civil Rights Activist opening up parks for all.	Charlotte Hawkins Brown educator, author and founder of the Palmer Memorial Institute.	Melvin Gray Johnson, Harlem Renaissance Artist and WWI Soldier from Greensboro	Dr. S.P. Sebastian professor at A&T, co-founded the L. Richardson Memorial Hospital
Josephine Boyd Bradley integrated the Greensboro Schools.	Magnolia House a Green Book Haven	Lou Hudson scores again!	Lt. Robert Campbell, Great War hero and first A&T professor of military science	Musician Second Class Calvin Morrow in the first Navy all-black band B-1

JUNETEENTH

Bingo

Bennett College Belles boycott the Carolina Theater in 1938	Copy of the Emancipation Proclamation Visits Greensboro 2014!	February 1st, 1960 The Greensboro Four take a seat at the Woolworth Counter	John Coltrane and his saxophone in High Point	Immanuel Lutheran College and Seminary opens in 1905.
Ned Griffin fights in the Revolutionary War, eventually gaining his freedom.	North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University founded in 1891.	Lou Hudson scores again!	Ronald McNair NASA Astronaut and graduate from A&T	Alma Adams US Representative and graduate from A&T
Mayor Yvonne Johnson graduate of Bennett College	George Simkins Civil Rights Activist opening up parks for all.	Free Space!		Dr. S.P. Sebastian professor at A&T, co-founded the L. Richardson Memorial Hospital
Bennett College started in 1873.	Magnolia House a Green Book Haven	Henry Frye is the first person of color to be the N.C. Supreme Court Chief Justice	Warnersville a community of freed men and women	James Dudley becomes the second President of UNC A&T
Josephine Boyd Bradley integrated the Greensboro Schools.	Thomas Day is at the top of the cabinetry discipline	Charlotte Hawkins Brown educator, author and founder of the Palmer Memorial Institute.	Lt. Robert Campbell, Great War hero and first A&T professor of military science	Musician Second Class Calvin Morrow in the first Navy all-black band B-1

JUNETEENTH

Bingo

Bennett College Belles boycott the Carolina Theater in 1938	Ned Griffin fights in the Revolutionary War, eventually gaining his freedom.	Dr. S.P. Sebastian professor at A&T, co-founded the L. Richardson Memorial Hospital	Warnersville a community of freed men and women	February 1st, 1960 The Greensboro Four take a seat at the Woolworth Counter
Henry Frye is the first person of color to be the N.C. Supreme Court Chief Justice	North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University founded in 1891.	Immanuel Lutheran College and Seminary opens in 1905.	James Dudley becomes the second President of UNC A&T	Mayor Yvonne Johnson first black mayor of Greensboro
Lou Hudson scores again!	Thomas Day is at the top of the cabinetry discipline	Free Space!		Alma Adams US Representative and graduate from A&T
Ronald McNair NASA Astronaut and graduate from A&T	George Simkins Civil Rights Activist opening up parks for all.	Calvin Morrow in the first Navy all-black band B-1	Melvin Gray Johnson, Harlem Renaissance Artist and WWI Soldier from Greensboro	John Coltrane and his saxophone in High Point
Josephine Boyd Bradley integrated the Greensboro Schools.	Magnolia House a Green Book Haven	Bennett College started in 1873.	Lt. Robert Campbell, Great War hero and first A&T professor of military science	Copy of the Emancipation Proclamation Visits Greensboro 2014!
				Charlotte Hawkins Brown educator, author and founder of the Palmer Memorial Institute.

JUNETEENTH

Bingo

J. Cole, American rapper grew up in Fayetteville	John Chavis was a free Black educator & fought during the American Revolutionary War.	Ernest Eugene Barnes Jr., an American artist was born in Durham, NC in 1938.	Dr. Willa B. Play-er, 1 st African American woman to become president of Bennett College	Moses Grandy helped build the Great Dismal Swamp Canal in the 1800s.
Rev. Dr. Pauli Murray lived in Durham and was a human rights activist, Episcopal priest, and a LGBTQ+ community member.	Abraham H. Gallo-way created the first Civil Rights groups in the South during the Civil war.	Nina Simone singer, and civil rights activist.	George Moses Horton known as "the Black bard of North Carolina", was an enslaved African-American poet.	Harriet Jacobs wrote "Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl", in 1861
Frances Jones Bonner was a psychoanalyst and civil rights activist.	Eva Clayton, first African-American woman to represent NC in Congress	Free Space!		The Underground Railroad Tree in Guilford College's wood.
William Penn High, High Point's black high school until 1968.	Harmon A. Unthank the 1st black bank director in the South, in Greensboro.	Virginia Holmes a local Greensboro activist and artist.	Alfreda Webb the 1st black female member of the N.C. House of Representatives.	Zoe Barbee, 1st black person elected to the Guilford County Board of Commissioners.
David Taylor, in 1999 was the 1 st black fire chief in High Point	Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., visited Greensboro on July 11, 1963	Kilby Hotel built in 1910 one of High Point's most important black owned businesses.	Malcolm X Liberation University, alternative college committed to Black Power.	Black Wall Street was the of businesses and financial services in Durham in the 1800s and 1900s.

JUNETEENTH

Bingo

Nina Simone singer, and civil rights activist.	Fred "Curly" Neal, member of the Harlem Globetrotters	Ernest Eugene Barnes Jr., an American artist was born in Durham, NC in 1938.	Dr. Willa B. Play-er, 1 st African American woman to become president of Bennett College	Moses Grandy helped build the Great Dismal Swamp Canal in the 1800s.
George Moses Horton known as "the Black bard of North Carolina", was an enslaved African-American poet.	William Penn High, High Point's black high school until 1968.	J. Cole, American rapper grew up in Fayetteville NC	Rev. Dr. Pauli Murray lived in Durham and was a human rights activist, Episcopal priest, and a LGBTQ+ community member.	Kilby Hotel built in 1910 one of High Point's most important black owned businesses.
Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., visited Greensboro on July 11, 1963	Black Wall Street was the of businesses and financial services in Durham in the 1800s and 1900s.	Free Space!		David Taylor, in 1999 was the 1 st black fire chief in High Point
Abraham H. Galloway created the first Civil Rights groups in the South during the Civil war.	Harmon A. Unthank the 1st black bank director in the South, in Greensboro.	The Underground Railroad Tree in Guildford College's wood.	Alfreda Webb the 1st black female member of the N.C. House of Representatives.	Zoe Barbee, 1st black person elected to the Guilford County Board of Commissioners.
Malcolm X Liberation University, alternative college committed to Black Power.	Frances Jones Bonner was a psychoanalyst and civil rights activist.	Harriet Jacobs wrote "Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl", in 1861	John Chavis was a free Black educator & fought during the American Civil War	Eva Clayton, first African-American woman to represent NC in Congress

JUNETEENTH

Bingo

Virginia Holmes a local Greensboro activist and artist.	Eva Clayton, first African-American woman to represent NC in Congress	Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., visited Greensboro on July 11, 1963	The Underground Railroad Tree in Guilford College's wood.	Zoe Barbee, 1st black person elected to the Guilford County Board of Commissioners.
Harmon A. Unthank the 1st black bank director in the South, in Greensboro.	Otis Hairston Jr., professional photographer whose subjects included Nelson Mandela, and Pope John Paul II.	Harriet Jacobs wrote "Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl", in 1861	"Sweet Lou" Hudson, a four-sport star at Dudley High.	Rev. Dr. Pauli Murray lived in Durham and was a human rights activist, Episcopal priest, and a LGBTQ+ community member.
Alfreda Webb the 1st black female member of the N.C. House of Representatives.	Black Wall Street was the of businesses and financial services in Durham in the 1800s and 1900s.	Free Space!		J. Cole, American rapper grew up in Fayetteville NC
Scarborough House in Durham built in 1916, by prosperous African-American J. C. Scarborough.	Dr. Willa B. Player, 1st African American woman to become president of Bennett Col-	Moses Grandy helped build the Great Dismal Swamp Canal in the 1800s.	William Penn High, High Point's black high school until 1968.	Cheri Beasley running for US Senate 2021 in NC
Ernest Eugene Barnes Jr., an American artist was born in Durham, NC in	Frances Jones Bonner was a psychoanalyst and civil rights activist.	Nina Simone singer, and civil rights activist.	John Chavis was a free Black educator & fought during the American Revolutionary War.	David Taylor, in 1999 was the 1st black fire chief in High Point

JUNETEENTH

Bingo

Virginia Holmes a local Greensboro activist and	Sweet Lou" Hudson, a four-sport star at Dudley High.	Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., visited Greensboro on July 11, 1963	The Under-ground Railroad Tree in Guild-ford College's wood.	Zoe Barbee, 1st black person elected to the Guilford County Board of Commissioners.
Dr. Willa B. Player, 1 st African American woman to become president of Bennett College	Otis Hairston Jr., professional photographer whose subjects included Nelson Mandela, and Pope John Paul II.	Harriet Jacobs wrote "Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl", in 1861	Scarborough House in Durham built in 1916, by prosperous African-American J. C. Scarborough.	Malcolm X Liberation University, alternative college committed to Black Power. and culture.
Alfreda Webb the 1st black female member of the N.C. House of Representatives.	Fred "Curly" Neal, member of the Harlem Globetrotters	Free Space!		John Chavis was a free Black educator & fought during the American Revolutionary War.
Harmon A. Unthank the 1st black bank director in the South, in Greensboro.	William Penn High, High Point's black high school until 1968.	Moses Grandy helped build the Great Dismal Swamp Canal in the 1800s.	Black Wall Street was the of businesses and financial services in Durham in the 1800s and 1900s.	J. Cole, American rapper grew up in Fayetteville NC
Ernest Eugene Barnes Jr., an American artist was born in Durham, NC in 1938.	Frances Jones Bonner was a psychoanalyst and civil rights activist.	Nina Simone singer, and civil rights activist.	Kilby Hotel built in 1910 one of High Point's most important black owned businesses.	Eva Clayton, first African-American woman to represent NC in Congress
				David Taylor, in 1999 was the 1 st black fire chief in High Point

JUNETEENTH

Bingo

The Underground Railroad Tree in Guilford College's wood.	William Penn High, High Point's black high school until 1968.	Ernest Eugene Barnes Jr., an American artist was born in Durham, NC in 1938.	Kilby Hotel built in 1910 one of High Point's most important black owned businesses.	Dr. Willa B. Player, 1 st African American woman to become president of Bennett College
Nina Simone singer, and civil rights activist.	Otis Hairston Jr., professional photographer whose subjects included Nelson Mandela, and Pope John Paul II.	Harriet Jacobs wrote "Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl", in 1861	Frances Jones Bonner was a psychoanalyst and civil rights activist.	David Taylor, in 1999 was the 1 st black fire chief in High Point
Zoe Barbee, 1st black person elected to the Guilford County Board of Commissioners.	"Sweet Lou" Hudson, a four-sport star at Dudley High.	Free Space!		J. Cole, American rapper grew up in Fayetteville
Harmon A. Unthank the 1st black bank director in the South, in Greensboro.	John Chavis was a free Black educator & fought during the American Revolutionary	Scarborough House in Durham built in 1916, by prosperous African-American J. C.	Black Wall Street was the of businesses and financial services in Durham in the 1800s and 1900s.	Fred "Curly" Neal, member of the Harlem Globetrotters
Virginia Holmes a local Greensboro activist and artist.	Cheri Beasley Chief Justice of the NC Supreme Court	Alfreda Webb the 1st black female member of the N.C. House of Representatives	Moses Grandy helped build the Great Dismal Swamp Canal in the 1800s.	Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., visited Greensboro on July 11, 1963

JUNETEENTH

Bingo

Calvin Morrow in the first Navy all-black band B-1	Josephine Boyd Bradley integrated the Greensboro Schools.	Henry Frye is the first person of color to be the N.C. Supreme Court Chief Justice	Dr. S.P. Sebastian professor at A&T, co-founded the L. Richardson Memorial Hospital	Lt. Robert Campbell, Great War hero and first A&T professor of military science
North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University founded in 1891.	Thomas Day is at the top of the cabinetry discipline.	Magnolia House a Green Book Haven	Bennett College Belles boycott the Carolina Theater in 1938	Immanuel Lutheran College and Seminary opens in 1905.
Ronald McNair NASA Astronaut and graduate from A&T	Copy of the Emancipation Proclamation Visits Greensboro 2014!	Free Space!		George Simkins Civil Rights Activist opening up parks for all.
Alma Adams US Representative and graduate from A&T	Warren Hervey Wheeler creator of Wheeler Airlines for African Americans	James Dudley becomes the second President of UNC A&T	February 1st, 1960 The Greensboro Four take a seat at the Woolworth Counter	Charlotte Hawkins Brown educator, author and founder of the Palmer Memorial Institute.
Bennett College started in 1873.	Martha Josephine Oxford Sebastian the first African American Librarian in Greensboro	Mayor Yvonne Johnson first black mayor of Greensboro.	John Coltrane and his saxophone in High Point	Melvin Gray Johnson, Harlem Renaissance Artist and WWI Soldier from Greensboro

JUNETEENTH

Bingo

Josephine Boyd Bradley integrated the Greensboro Schools.	Calvin Morrow in the first Navy all-black band B-1	Mayor Yvonne Johnson first black mayor of Greensboro.	Alfreda Johnson Webb first female African American veterinarian.	Ned Griffin fights in the Revolutionary War, eventually gaining his freedom.
Magnolia House a Green Book Haven	Lou Hudson scores again!	North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University founded in 1891.	Bennett College Belles boycott the Carolina Theater in 1938	Warnersville a community of freed men and women
Charlotte Hawkins Brown educator, author and founder of the Palmer Memorial Institute.	Alma Adams US Representative and graduate from A&T	Free Space!		Ronald McNair NASA Astronaut and graduate from A&T
Copy of the Emancipation Proclamation Visits Greensboro 2014!	Bennett College started in 1873.	Maidie Norman is on the radio after graduating from Bennett.	Thomas Day is at the top of the cabinetry discipline.	Harmon Unthank Greensboro's First Black Leader
Lt. Robert Campbell, Great War hero and first A&T professor of military science	Carolyn R. Paton first female and first black Peace Corps Director	George Simkins Civil Rights Activist opening up parks for all.	Henry Frye is the first person of color to be the N.C. Supreme Court Chief Justice	Melvin Gray Johnson, Harlem Renaissance Artist and WWI Soldier from Greensboro
				Dr. S.P. Sebastian professor at A&T, co-founded the L. Richardson Memorial Hospital

JUNETEENTH

Bingo

Bennett College started in 1873.	Henry Frye is the first person of color to be the N.C. Supreme Court Chief Justice	Lt. Robert Campbell, Great War hero and first A&T professor of military science	George Simkins Civil Rights Activist opening up parks for all.	Magnolia House a Green Book Haven
Calvin Morrow in the first Navy all-black band B-1	Josephine Boyd Bradley integrated the Greensboro Schools.	Mayor Yvonne Johnson first black mayor of Greensboro.	Dr. S.P. Sebastian professor at A&T, co-founded the L. Richardson Memorial Hospital	John Coltrane and his saxophone in High Point
North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University founded in 1891.	Thomas Day is at the top of the cabinetry discipline.	Free Space!		Immanuel Lutheran College and Seminary opens in 1905.
Ronald McNair NASA Astronaut and graduate from A&T	Copy of the Emancipation Proclamation Visits Greensboro 2014!	Martha Josephine Oxford Sebastian the first African American Librarian in Greensboro	Melvin Gray Johnson, Harlem Renaissance Artist and WWI Soldier from Greensboro	Warnersville a community of freed men and women
Alma Adams US Representative and graduate from A&T	Warren Hervey Wheeler creator of Wheeler Airlines for African Americans	James Dudley becomes the second President of UNC A&T	February 1st, 1960 The Greensboro Four take a seat at the Woolworth Counter	Charlotte Hawkins Brown educator, author and founder of the Palmer Memorial Institute.

JUNETEENTH

Bingo

Josephine Boyd Bradley integrated the Greensboro Schools.	Lt. Robert Campbell, Great War hero and first A&T professor of military science	Henry Frye is the first person of color to be the N.C. Supreme Court Chief Justice	George Simkins Civil Rights Activist opening up parks for all.	Dr. S.P. Sebastian professor at A&T, co-founded the L. Richardson Memorial Hospital
Calvin Morrow in the first Navy all-black band B-1	Bennett College started in 1873.	Mayor Yvonne Johnson first black mayor of Greensboro.	Magnolia House a Green Book Haven	John Coltrane and his saxophone in High Point
Alma Adams US Representative and graduate from A&T	James Dudley becomes the second President of UNC A&T	Free Space!		Charlotte Hawkins Brown educator, author and founder of the Palmer Memorial Institute.
Ronald McNair NASA Astronaut and graduate from A&T	Copy of the Emancipation Proclamation Visits Greensboro 2014!	Martha Josephine Oxford Sebastian the first African American Librarian in Greensboro	February 1st, 1960 The Greensboro Four take a seat at the Woolworth Counter	Melvin Gray Johnson, Harlem Renaissance Artist and WWI Soldier from Greensboro
North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University founded in 1891.	Warren Hervey Wheeler creator of Wheeler Airlines for African Americans	Thomas Day is at the top of the cabinetry discipline.	Bennett College Belles boycott the Carolina Theater in 1938	Warnersville a community of freed men and women
				Immanuel Lutheran College and Seminary opens in 1905.

JUNETEENTH

Bingo

Lt. Robert Campbell, Great War hero and first A&T professor of military science	North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University founded in 1891.	Magnolia House a Green Book Haven	Copy of the Emancipation Proclamation Visits Greensboro 2014!	Ned Griffin fights in the Revolutionary War, eventually gaining his freedom.
Lou Hudson scores again!	Alma Adams US Representative and graduate from A&T	Mayor Yvonne Johnson first black mayor of Greensboro.	Josephine Boyd Bradley integrated the Greensboro Schools.	Calvin Morrow in the first Navy all-black band B-1
James Dudley becomes the second President of UNC A&T	Thomas Day is at the top of the cabinetry discipline.	Free Space!		George Simkins Civil Rights Activist opening up parks for all.
Alfreda Johnson Webb first female African American veterinarian.	Bennett College started in 1873.	Dr. S.P. Sebastian professor at A&T, co-founded the L. Richardson Memorial Hospital	John Coltrane and his saxophone in High Point	Warnersville a community of freed men and women
Melvin Gray Johnson, Harlem Renaissance Artist and WWI Soldier from Greensboro	Ronald McNair NASA Astronaut and graduate from A&T	Bennett College Belles boycott the Carolina Theater in 1938	Henry Frye is the first person of color to be the N.C. Supreme Court Chief Justice	Charlotte Hawkins Brown educator, author and founder of the Palmer Memorial Institute.

JUNETEENTH

Bingo

Warnersville a community of freed men and women	North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University founded in 1891.	Charlotte Hawkins Brown educator, author and founder of the Palmer Memorial Institute.	Alfreda Johnson Webb first female African American veterinarian.	Ned Griffin fights in the Revolutionary War, eventually gaining his freedom.
Magnolia House a Green Book Haven	Lou Hudson scores again!	Mayor Yvonne Johnson first black mayor of Greensboro.	Bennett College Belles boycott the Carolina Theater in 1938	Calvin Morrow in the first Navy all-black band B-1
James Dudley becomes the second President of UNC A&T	Alma Adams US Representative and graduate from A&T	Free Space!		George Simkins Civil Rights Activist opening up parks for all.
Harmon Unthank Greensboro's First Black Leader	Bennett College started in 1873.	Josephine Boyd Bradley integrated the Greensboro Schools.	Copy of the Emancipation Proclamation Visits Greensboro 2014!	Melvin Gray Johnson, Harlem Renaissance Artist and WWI Soldier from Greensboro
Lt. Robert Campbell, Great War hero and first A&T professor of military science	Ronald McNair NASA Astronaut and graduate from A&T	Thomas Day is at the top of the cabinetry discipline.	Henry Frye is the first person of color to be the N.C. Supreme Court Chief Justice	Dr. S.P. Sebastian professor at A&T, co-founded the L. Richardson Memorial Hospital

JUNETEENTH

Bingo

Lt. Robert Campbell, Great War hero and first A&T professor of military science	North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University founded in 1891.	Magnolia House a Green Book Haven	Copy of the Emancipation Proclamation Visits Greensboro 2014!	Dr. S.P. Sebastian professor at A&T, co-founded the L. Richardson Memorial Hospital
Lou Hudson scores again!	Josephine Boyd Bradley integrated the Greensboro Schools.	Mayor Yvonne Johnson first black mayor of Greensboro.	Melvin Gray Johnson, Harlem Renaissance Artist and WWI Soldier from Greensboro	Alma Adams US Representative and graduate from A&T
Ned Griffin fights in the Revolutionary War, eventually gaining his freedom.	Thomas Day is at the top of the cabinetry discipline.	Free Space!		Immanuel Lutheran College and Seminary opens in 1905.
Ronald McNair NASA Astronaut and graduate from A&T	George Simkins Civil Rights Activist opening up parks for all.	Calvin Morrow in the first Navy all-black band B-1	Bennett College Belles boycott the Carolina Theater in 1938	John Coltrane and his saxophone in High Point
James Dudley becomes the second President of UNC A&T	February 1st, 1960 The Greensboro Four take a seat at the Woolworth Counter	Bennett College started in 1873.	Warnersville a community of freed men and women	Charlotte Hawkins Brown educator, author and founder of the Palmer Memorial Institute.